Le Part

Do's and Don'ts of conversing with a student/young person re. a disclosure

Do:

- Allow the pace of the conversation to be dictated by the pupil
- Ask neutral questions which encourage the pupil to talk such as "can you tell me what happened?"
- Accept what the pupil says and do not ask for further detail
- Acknowledge how hard it was for them to tell you
- · Reassure the pupil that they have done the right thing
- Explain whom you will have to tell (the Designated Safeguarding Lead) and why

Don't:

- Burden the pupil with guilt by asking questions such as "why didn't you tell me before?"
- Interrogate or pressure the pupil to provide information
- Do not ask leading questions which could compromise case evidence
- Ask any questions that start with the words, how, what, when, where and why
- Criticise any perpetrator
- Promise confidentiality or make promises that you cannot keep such as "it will be alright now"

All forms should be signed off by the Designated Safeguarding Lead and filed securely. The outcome must also be recorded.
